National Tea Party Federation Announces New Members
Thirty New Tea Party Groups Added to Federation

April 20, 2010 - The National Tea Party Federation announced the addition of over thirty new members to the Federation. These organizations represent groups from around the country and reflect the growing interest in the NTPF's core mission of collaborating on positive messaging and rapid media response to false accusations.

David Webb, Co-founder of TeaParty365 stated, "We are pleased to be partnering in the efforts of the National Tea Party Federation. These fellow Tea Party groups are working to ensure the integrity of the Tea Party movement through media messaging and we see the importance of this endeavor in New York."

Antonio Hinton of the Knoxville Tea Party commented, "As a member of the TN Tea Party Coalition, I understand the unique benefits of bringing together this federation. I look forward to participating in this collective voice for reason within the Tea Party movement and will encourage my colleagues in Tennessee to join."

Suzanne Pak, Executive Director of Song of Truth Foundation, stated, "The possibilities of what we can accomplish through coordinated effort are limitless. To ensure victory in 2010 requires that we leverage all communication and outreach tools in our arsenal, and I am thankful to see NTPF step up to the challenge with an innovative solution."

Jason Hoyt of the Orlando Tea Party and a founding member of the National Tea Party Federation said, "Since our announcement we have received a number of requests through the website. We are excited by the overwhelming response and we are glad that other Tea Parties see the benefit of media collaboration."

Karen Miner Hurd, Founder of Hampton Roads Tea Party stated, "We have been very proactive in our media strategy through radio and social networking and we are excited to join the NTPF and share some of the things we have learned through this journey."

Laurie Masterson, Chairman of Arkansas Unite commented, "As a founding member, we are pleased to see the expansion of the National Tea Party Federation. The addition of these leaders and organizations gives confidence that this federation encompasses a broad coalition of regional groups and adds to the diversity of input and ideas for its success."
